Who is a Legacy of Caring Awardee:

Passavant Hospital Foundation is currently seeking nominations for the 2023 Legacy of Caring Awards. A Legacy of Caring Awardee MUST:

- Have dedicated TEN or more years of service to UPMC Passavant
- Embodies a commitment to patient care and the community's health
- Personifies UPMC Passavant's values within and beyond the hospital's walls

Nominees may include physicians, nurses, professionals, community members or organizations, donors, volunteers and others who made significant contributions to the establishment and growth of UPMC Passavant.

Below are some of the award categories to be considered for nominations:

James C. and Henrietta D. Lear Leadership Award recognizing significant leadership for patient care and/or the growth of the hospital

Reverend William A. Passavant Humanitarian Award recognizing service to humanity outside the hospital's walls, in the tradition of our hospital's founder

John P. "Jerry" Auld Award for Community Service recognizing service to the hospital and the community's health by a non-employee

Legacy of Service Award recognizing longevity of service at or for the hospital

Excellence in Patient Care Award recognizing commitment to excellence in patient care

Matthew Morrow Spirit of Passavant Award recognizing someone who works behind the scenes, a go-to person who gets the job done, goes the extra mile, exhibiting pride in working at Passavant

Legacy Beyond Award posthumously to someone whose contribution to the hospital has left a lasting impact

The Legacy of Caring Award recipients will be recognized at Passavant Hospital Foundation's Eighth Annual Legacy of Caring Gala on Thursday, September 21, 2023 at the DoubleTree by Hilton Pittsburgh-Cranberry.

Submit your nomination by May 1, 2023
